We Train Teachers

School Direct

Your route into teaching

Why train with us?

The Telford Partnership is a group of five primary and three secondary schools all based in Telford, Shropshire.

We offer training routes as pathways to qualifying as a teacher. All the schools in the partnership have experience of training students and we all share the same ethos.

We offer an outstanding academic and 'hands on' school based experience in a variety of settings working in teams that are friendly and supportive.

School Direct gives an innovative opportunity to access high quality school based initial teacher training with an outstanding ITT partner— University of Wolverhampton
